

Volunteer or Intern at Revolution Books

Everyone at this not-for-profit revolutionary bookstore is a volunteer.

Among the many things you can do as a volunteer or intern:

- Design front window and store displays
- Research books/authors for readings
- Produce events
- Take Revolution Books tables to events
- Put books in order on the shelves
- Develop course book ordering with professors
- Work with customers
- Order books
- Develop Libros Revolucion, our Spanish-language section
- Media and promotions
- Graphic design of cards, signage
- Web design/maintenance
- Develop panels, salon discussions
- Organize basement space
- Develop web store
- Maintain and develop database

Revolution Books will structure a serious internship program with you and your university or high school.

We are also open to people who want to volunteer at the store for any period of time -- from 2 hours to 2 days a week (or more).

You will learn about how to run an independent bookstore at a unique place whose reason for being is revolution. Staff members at Revolution Books work as a team of scientists, and dreamers-- aiming to understand, and radically change, the whole world. We see the problems of the world as rising from the capitalist/imperialist system, and that it will take a revolution to change this. The most interesting and interested people come through the doors of Revolution Books every day. Come meet them, and be part of a center for a re-envisioned revolution and communism.
